

COVID-19 (Coronavirus) Business Impact Survey March 17, 2020

Q1: Is your company facing supply chain disruptions due to the coronavirus outbreak?

Q2: Is your company facing a negative financial impact because of the coronavirus?

Q3: Have you seen a reduction in orders?

Q4: If so, what is the level of reduction?

Q5: Is your company changing operations due to the coronavirus outbreak?

Q6: Do you have an emergency response plan in place to prepare your company & employees?

Q7: Are you allowing clerical or front-line workers to work remotely?

Q8: Are you experiencing logistics disruption?

Q9: What actions have you taken related to business travel?

Q10: Have you reduced your workforce or reduced hours as a result of the coronavirus outbreak?

Q11: What actions impacting your workforce are being contemplated?

Q12: How are you handling compensation and benefits for workers in the event of a shutdown, temporary layoff, or reduced hours?

Q13: If your company were to face a temporary cessation of operations, how long could your company be able to withstand a drastic reduction in revenue?

Q14: What operational changes have you implemented or are under consideration including changing hours of work?

Q15: If you have reduced operations, what is your current level of productivity?

Q16: What types of sanitization are you implementing?

Q17: Do you have business insurance?

Q18: If you have business insurance, has your insurance company indicated that the coronavirus may be considered force majeure and not covered under your policy?

Q19: Do you believe that the Federal Reserve's recent action to lower interest rates will help your company?

